WASHINGTON GOSSIP

Immigration Bill Has the Right of Way in the Senate.

FREE HOMESTEAD LAND LAW.

Congress May Adjourn for the Holiday Recess Next Friday—Cuban Question May Furnish a Sensation at Any Time. Appropriation Bills—President Cleveland Goes Hunting.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The Lodge immigration bill, as the "unfinished business," will have the right of way in the senate each day after 2 o'clock until disposed of, and the friends of the measure have announced their determination not to cease their labor in its behalf until a vote shall be secured upon it. It is impossible to say how much time will be required on the bill, but Senator Lodge is hopeful that he will get through this week.

Senator Gibson has announced his purpose to talk in opposition to the bill but he still declines to state whether he will resort to other tactics to defeat it. Those who oppose concede that the bill will pass if it should reach a vote.

After the immigration bill comes that providing for free homesteads on lands formerly occupied by Indians as reservations. The present homestead law does not apply to these lands, and it is claimed that the fact that it does not has cost many settlers their homestead rights. The question is a vital one in many portions of the west and has been particularly prominent in Oklahoma. Senator Pettigrew is the special champion of the bill and he will show that it was endorsed by the national conventions of all the parties last summer. The bill will be vigorously opposed, as it is claimed that its enactment into law would cost the government no less than $25,000,000.

It is probable that these two measures will consume the greater part of the time of the senate this week, and it is quite possible that they may not be disposed of. The bill providing for the election of senators by the direct vote of the people is a special order for today but it may go over to a future date. There is a possibility that congress may on Thursday or Friday adjourn over until after the holidays. The Cuban question may furnish a topic for a sensation at any time.

WORK IN THE HOUSE.

Holiday Recess—Appropriation and Pacific Railroad Bills.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—It has not yet been decided by the house when the holiday recess shall begin, but Saturday at a conference of the republican members of the ways and means committee a date as early as Friday of this week was suggested. It is even probable, however, that the recess will begin about Wednesday of next week and continue until the Monday after New Years. This week, except today, which is District of Columbia day, and an hour of tomorrow, which has been set aside for the consideration of the bill to transfer the present rights of the Atlantic and Pacific railroad under its government charter to the mortgagees when they reorganize, will be devoted to the consideration of the army and legislative appropriation bills. The former is completed and the latter will be put in final shape by the committee today. It is the expectation of the leaders that both these bills can be passed before the recess. Should any time remain it will probably be given to the committee to call up such bills as they have on the calendar.

ARBITRATION TREATY.

Negotiations Between England and the United States About Concluded.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The negotiations between the United States and Great Britain for a treaty of general arbitration, covering all subjects of difference between the two English-speaking nations, present and prospective, has advanced to a stage of completeness far beyond what the public has had reason to believe. The purpose of Secretary Olney and Sir Julian Pauncefote is to conclude the negotiations within the next three weeks. All of the substantial features of the treaty have been agreed on. From the present status of the negotiations it is believed the following will be the important terms of the treaty.

1. A term of five years from the date of the exchange of ratification within which the treaty shall be operative.
2. A court of arbitration of six members, three to be drawn from the judiciary of the United States and three from the judiciary of Great Britain.
3. The submission to this tribunal of all differences between the two nations, now pending or to arise within the period of five years, this not to include the question of Venezuela, the boundary between Alaska and British Columbia.

The completion of this treaty will mark an important epoch in relations between the two English-speaking nations, and in the judgment of those who have been most identified with its consummation, it will be the most important document of a peaceful character the history of their mutual dealings.

Cleveland Goes Gunning.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—President Cleveland left Washington Saturday night for a shooting trip in South Carolina waters. He was accompanied by Captain R. D. Evans, Commander Lambertson, and Dr. O'Reilly, his physician. The president is considerably fatigued from the labors involved in the preparation of his message, and is in need of recuperation, so it is probable that he will absent himself from Washington at least a week. The party started by rail for Georgetown, S. C., where they will board the lighthouse tender Wistaria and proceed to Winyah bay where they will be the guests of the Annandale Shooting club.

JOINT NOTE TO THE PORTE.
Ambassadors Demand the Recall of the Special Envoy to Crete.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 14.—The ambassadors of the powers have sent a joint note to the porte demanding the recall within 48 hours of the porte's special envoy to Crete, Saad, Ed Bin Pasha, who is accused of thwarting the reforms projected there. These reforms included the nomination of the Christian governor of Crete, which was accorded, economic autonomy with the payment of a tribute to the sultan, the recognition of the gens d'armes by European officers and the independence of the judiciary of Crete by the creation of a high court at Cana.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The head-quarters of the Cuban legation in this city was the center of interest to a number of callers today, who had come to express to Senator Quesada their sorrow at the death of General Maceo and to offer their sympathy and in some cases help for the Cuban cause. These callers included a number of congressmen, and two senators (whose names the Cuban representative declined to disclose), but who told him of their desire to see some action taken by congress that would be of assistance to the insurgents. Senator Quesada says that he has received during the past few days about 50 letters from many prominent persons and organizations offering assistance to the Cubans in their fight for liberty. Among the states and cities represented in these letters: Washington, Kansas, Indianapolis, Wyoming, Buffalo, Evansville, Ind., and Waterbury, Conn. Responsive to these letters, Mr. Quesada authorizes his former statement that the Cubans have enough men and leaders to gain the cause for which they are fighting. They can avail themselves of 60,000 men and more if necessary, but what they want is arms and ammunition and medicine for the sick and wounded.

It is said offers of assistance from abroad have been received. The Paris agent of the junta says that not only the Cubans, but the French people, after hearing of the assassination and death of Maceo, are collecting all they can to send an expedition, to be called the "Expedition of General Maceo," to Cuba.

Mr. Quesada states that from San Domingo, and Mexico also, came assurances of contributions to the cause, while the working men and merchants of Tampa, Fla., say they will give not only 10 per cent of their earnings weekly, but will work three Sundays in every month in order to give their wages for free Cuba. The agent of Jacksonville, Fla., writes that the people can be counted on for 100 rifles. There was no information received from the headquarters yesterday other than a telegram from President Estrada Palma of the Cuba junta, which attributed Maceo's death to assassination by a plot arranged between Ahumada and Dr. Zertucha, which was published yesterday.

The circumstantial acts of Maceo's death now convince the leaders that there is little doubt that he has been killed, but they reassert their belief that this will not interfere with the success of the Cuban arms.

Mr. De Loma, the Spanish minister here, had no additional facts in regard to the death of Maceo to communicate to the press last night. So far as ascertained the state department has no yet been notified.

FILIBUSTER EXPEDITION.
Custom Official Expected to Issue Clearance Papers to the Commodore.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 14.—The steamer Commodore has received permission to leave port and is lying at one of the railway wharves preparatory to taking on a cargo for Cuba. After loading the arms the owners of the steamer will demand clearance papers for a Cuban port, on authority of the decision of Attorney General Harmon, and customs-house officials are expected to grant the clearance. If the steamer shall then be seized by a revenue cutter, the owners will turn the vessel over to the government and then institute suit for recovery of value of cargo and cargo.

The Three Friends and the Danes are expected to follow the example of the Commodore, so that there are indications of considerable activity in filibustering circles during the coming winter.

Will Vote to Stop Hostilities.
SHAMOKIN, Pa., Dec. 14.—Congressman M. H. Kulp left for Washington last night to be present today in anticipation of action should the report of General Antonio Maceo's murder by the Spaniards be confirmed. He was shocked upon learning of the alleged crime, and if the story of the assassination proves true, he says he will unhesitatingly vote for the suppression of further hostilities. Heretofore, he has been very conservative.

Opposed to Government Action.
DENVER, Dec. 14.—The American society of Irrigation Engineers has adopted resolutions opposing the idea of government action in the building of irrigation reservoirs and canals, but advocating a government commission to look over the arid territory and make suggestions for the aid of the states in the work.

Canadian Minister of Agriculture.
OTTAWA, Dec. 14.—Hon. Sydney Fisher minister of agriculture will leave here tomorrow for Washington, where he will likely stay for a couple of weeks. Mr. Fisher will discuss the question of abolition of international quarantine with the United States government.

Washington State's Vote.
OLYMPIA, Wash., Dec. 14.—The official canvass of the vote of the state of Washington for the November election has just been completed by the secretary of state. The vote is as follows: Bryan, 51,049; McKinley, 38,574; Levering, 908; Palmer, 148.

Hanna at Home.
CLEVELAND, Dec. 14.—Chairman Hanna returned home yesterday, coming direct from Philadelphia. He declined to say anything about the gossip concerning the cabinet appointments of President-elect McKinley.

SYMPATHY FOR CUBA

Congressmen and Senators Express Sorrow at Maceo's Death.

AMMUNITION IS WHAT IS WANTED

It is said the French will send an Expedition to the Island—Troops Enlisted in Arkansas, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas and Wisconsin—Steamer Commodore to Leave Jacksonville Today With Arms.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The head-quarters of the Cuban legation in this city was the center of interest to a number of callers today, who had come to express to Senator Quesada their sorrow at the death of General Maceo and to offer their sympathy and in some cases help for the Cuban cause. Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U.S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder
ABSOLUTELY PURE

A huge number of Cubans arrived in the city yesterday from Tampa, and others are reported to have left from Fernandina. A rendezvous is expected at some point down the river. A party will board a steamer and follow the Commodore, effecting a juncture at some convenient point on the Cuban coast.

Illinois and Wisconsin Troops.
KANKAKEE, Ill., Dec. 14.—A representative of the Cuban junta has been in this vicinity the past few days superintending the forwarding of recruits for the insurgent army. Sixty recruits passed through here Saturday night on the Illinois Central. They were gathered from Chicago and Wisconsin points. Twenty-five more have arrived from Streator, Springfield and other points and were furnished transportation to New Orleans. It is probable that a number will be enlisted at this point.

Recruiting Officer at Kokomo.
KOKOMO, Ind., Dec. 14.—A stranger, declining to give his name, opened headquarters here yesterday to recruit volunteers for the cause of Cuba. He has succeeded in interesting a number of people, and hopes to muster a full company in this vicinity to fight the Spaniards.

Enlisting Men in Kansas.
LARNED, Kan., Dec. 14.—A man representing himself to be a recruiting officer for the Cuban army and to hail from St. Louis has enlisted 15 or 20 young men in this town and county under promise of good pay and free transportation to New Orleans.

Company From Arkansas.
FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Dec. 14.—A company of 35 young men in this city have organized and will in a few days start for Cuba to join the rebel army.

ASPHYXIATED.

Mother Found Dead and Daughter Dying From Inhaling Gas.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 14.—Mrs. Catherine Corbett and her daughter Mary were suffocated in their home by gas leaking from a stove Saturday night. The latter may live, but the mother when found last night had been dead for 12 hours. Last night persons passing the house heard groans on the inside and entered, else the daughter too would have been a victim of the deadly fumes.

TALL MAN AND SHORT MAN.

Try to Hold Up a Hotel Bartender and Kill Him.
CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—The barroom of the Hotel Le Grand was the scene of a murder early yesterday. Two men, "a tall man and a short man," as usual, entered the saloon. The "short man" pushed the porter behind a door and held him there with a revolver pointed at his breast. The "tall man" advanced to the bar and demanded of the bartender, William Jahns, the money in the tiller. Jahns reached beneath the bar and accidentally knocked over a number of glasses, which fell to the floor with a crash. The "tall man," evidently thinking that the bartender was reaching for a pistol, drew a 44-caliber revolver from his overcoat pocket quick as flash and fired two shots, one of the balls passing through Jahns' heart. The men had no trouble in making their escape.

Senator Fair's Will.
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 14.—Messrs. Ames and Carvalho, the New York experts who came out here in the interests of the Fair children, have made a report in which they declare the pencil will be a forgery. The deed to $500,000 worth of property held by Mrs. Nettie R. Craven, and her contract marriage with the late Senator Fair, are placed in the same category. When Senator Fair died he left a vast estate valued at from $20,000,000 to $40,000,000. In his will he took precautions to keep the estate intact for the benefit of his children, Mrs. Herman Oelrichs of New York, Miss Virginia and Charles L. Fair.

Brave Woman.
WOOSTER, O., Dec. 14.—Yesterday three masked burglars battered down the door of the farmhouse of Perry Bristow, an aged man living near here. Just as they entered the house Mrs. Alice Baxter, Bristow's housekeeper, met them with a lamp in her hand. As one of the burglars attempted to grab her by the throat, she hit him in the face with the lamp, breaking it. She then continued to hammer him with the glass handle of the lamp until he beat a retreat and the other two robbers ran away. One of them was afterward arrested.

Big Sale of Fine Sheep.
MUNCIE, Ind., Dec. 14.—The Shropshire sheep sale held by I. J. Williams & Son, on their farm south of this city, Saturday, proved to be the second largest sale of Shropshire sheep ever held in the United States. In all 204 head were sold for $4,035, and only eight of the number were purchased by Delaware county farmers. The remainder went to Missouri, Iowa, Ohio and Illinois. One ram sold for $125, another for $95 and another for $69, and one ram lamb sold for $67.

Suffered From Overstudy.
NASHVILLE, Dec. 14.—Yesterday Sterling W. Turner, of the junior class of Vanderbilt University, committed suicide by cutting his throat with a razor, in his room. He was discovered by some of his companions, who went to his room, and failing to get in forced an entrance, finding Turner dead in a pool of blood. Turner was 23 years old, president of the university Young Men's Christian association, lived at Wartrace, Tenn., and was suffering from the effects of overstudy.

Lost Both Hands.
CICERO, Ind., Dec. 14.—Charles Gallo-way, a young man from Noblesville, while hunting about four miles north-east of Cicero, met with an accident by which he will lose the use of both hands. He fell over a log and his gun was discharged, the load passing through his hands and lodging in his left breast. The physicians who attended him believe he will recover. This has been a most unfortunate family, his father being killed by a falling tree about six years ago. His mother was almost killed in a runaway accident and he had an arm broken a few months ago.

Fatal Machines.
HAGERSTOWN, Ind., Dec. 14.—The new cornhuskers have proven to be dangerous machines. Four men in this section have lost a hand or arm while feeding them. The past week three were hurt. John Roberts, a few miles southeast, died from the effects of losing an arm. George Muhl of this place had the thumb and several fingers of one hand crushed, and now Barney Linderman, a few miles east, has had an arm amputated and may die by reason of having it caught in the machine.

Tried Murder and Suicide.
GREENVILLE, O., Dec. 14.—James Keefeauy beat his wife with a fence paling and left her on the street for dead. He then took morphine, but relented and was saved by means of a stomach pump, and arrested for attempted murder. Neighbors rescued Mrs. Keefeauy. She will probably recover.

Weather.
Indiana and Illinois.—Generally cloudy weather, conditions favorable for light local showers; cooler in southern portions.

Ohio.—Fair and cooler, with threatening local showers at night; colder.

TRI-STATE NOTES.

A church of deaf mutes has been organized at Jacksonville, Ill.

Macon county, Ill., is out of debt and has a balance of $15,000 in the treasury.

The Christian church of Broad Ripple, Ind., have leased a saloon and turned it into a house of worship.

Columbus (O.) Lodge Knights of Pythias, of which McKinley is a member, are making arrangements to attend his funeral.

The Urbana (O.) high school building, the finest and most costly edifice in the city, was destroyed by fire Saturday night. Loss on building is $80,000.

The United windowglass plant at Orestes, Ind., started in full Saturday, furnishing employment for 800 hands, after nearly six months' idleness.

Hon. J. N. Huston, formerly Republican state chairman, will enter the service as a guarantee company and will be located in New York or Florida.

Rev. J. W. Kapp, president of the state Christian Endeavor union says the next place of meeting for the society will be Winona, near Warsaw, Ind.

Four stores at Clifton, O., were visited by burglars and looted. A. J. White, carrying on a general store loses $1,000. The goods were carried away in wagons.

Karl Becker, son of ex-County Recorder Charles Becker, while hunting sparrows at Freeburg, Ill., accidentally shot himself in the foot. Blood poisoning is feared.

Under orders of the town council of Berkeley, Ind., all schools, churches and lodges are closed and all public gatherings prohibited until the place is rid of diphtheria.

Francis Jones, a young woman living near Pennville, Ind., attempted suicide Saturday by taking rat poison. Physicians saved her. She refuses to give any cause for the act.

The hardware firm of Jett & Johnson of Lebanon, Ind., has made an assignment to George C. Shirley of that place, for the benefit of creditors. Assets and liabilities about $10,000 each.

Governor Matthews has pardoned two life prisoners from the Indiana prison, William L. Kutz, sent from Evansville, and William R. Taylor, sent from Terre Haute, Ind.

OIL EXCITEMENT.

Abandoned Gas Well Suddenly Turns Into an Oil Gusher.

ANDERSON, Ind., Dec. 14.—Reports received in this city yesterday from the southern part of the county have occasioned much excitement and speculation. Consumers on a farmers' gas line who prepared to light their fires turned on their valves and instead of getting gas a gush of oil came out. Several houses were flooded with the oil. Outside it was found that oil was gushing from the regulators and from seams in the pipes.

Investigation showed that one of the big gas wells which has been unused on the line had suddenly turned into an oil gusher. Prices on leases went out of sight immediately. It is thought there will be a stampede of oil men for the new field.

FOR A LARGE AMOUNT.

Judge Hamilton's Name Forged to a Seventy-Five Thousand Dollar Check.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 14.—The name of Judge E. T. Hamilton of Cleveland was forged to a $75,000 check Saturday. A man appeared at the Lorain Street bank and presented an order for that amount on the Dime Savings and Building company, payable to C. N. Cunningham. The treasurer offered an excuse for not paying it at once and Cunningham departed.

Meanwhile the signature had been pronounced a forgery by Judge Hamilton. Later Cunningham again appeared. He was told that the bank had failed to get the money and was requested to return at 5 o'clock. He agreed to do so and has not been seen since.

ALLEGED INCENDIARISM.

Arrested on Charge of Killing Stallions and Burning Barns.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Dec. 14.—George Gobon and Aaron Ross have been arrested on the charge of killing two stallions owned by Gobon and burning the barn of George Tomlinson, where the two horses were kept. The barn burned on the night of Aug. 21, and the charge is that these men cut the throats of the horses and set the barn on fire to make it appear that the animals had been burned to death, and then collect $500 insurance on the horses.

Laurada Destination Is Baltimore.

LONDON, Dec. 14.—A Rome dispatch to The Daily News reports that the American steamer Laurada has gone from Palermo. Captain Hughes, upon being asked whether it was true that he was going to Valencia to be captured so as to provoke a casus belli against Spain by the United States, replied that he knew nothing and must await orders. His ultimate destination, he said, was Baltimore.

Walling Must Hang.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 14.—The court of appeals Saturday reaffirmed the decision of the lower court at Newport Ky., in sentencing Alonzo Walling to be hanged as the accomplice of Scott Jackson in the murder of Pearl Bryan last January. It is quite likely that the date fixed for the execution of both men will be about the anniversary of the murder, or early in February.

PEACE HATH HER VICTORIES.

THE TREATY OF ARBITRATION BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND GREAT BRITAIN, it is announced, will probably be completed and signed within the next three weeks. The completion of this treaty will mark an important epoch in the relations between the two English-speaking nations, and in the judgment of those who have been most identified with its consummation it will be the most important document of a peaceful character in the history of their mutual dealings. The treaty is to cover a period of five years; the board is to be made up of three members of the United States judiciary and three members of England's judiciary; and all differences now pending or that may arise between the two countries will be submitted to this board except the Venezuelan and Bering Sea controversies which are now in process of settlement by other plans. This treaty finds the mode of settling all disputes now between the countries.

The main purpose is to guard against future differences threatening a rupture, and in this the negotiators believe that the terms of the instrument will be such as to avoid all possibility of international conflict for the future and this is regarded as the main achievement. It is one said to be peculiarly advantageous to the commercial interests of both countries, assuring them against rumors of war or the serious prospect of war. As one of those concerned in the negotiations sums up the result.

When a serious difference arises between the two countries, instead of a public feeling that a war may result and a consequent unsettling of commercial interests, as occurred during the Venezuelan crisis, the public will know beyond all possibility of rumor or report that the difference is one which will be settled by arbitration instead of a possible resort to arms. This public sentiment against alarm is felt to be no less beneficial, as one of the features secured by the treaty than the plan of arbitration itself.

If Maceo himself will make affidavit that he is dead we will believe the report but not otherwise.—Commercial Tribune.

THE AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR meets in Cincinnati to-day. It is expected that this will be one of the most important meetings this organization has ever held.

WHEN Santa Claus makes an announcement through the advertising columns of the REPUBLICAN it counts for something. You can find almost anything you want for Christmas in the stores which use our advertising columns.

If the stories are true that Maceo was assassinated by the Spaniards it only reveals the desperation to which they are driven to crush the rebellion. While it is a serious blow, we do not believe it will put down the war. The Cubans will renew their vigilance and fight with redoubled energy for their freedom.

ELDER TROTS. JONES, of this city, is an applicant for the chaplaincy of the Prison South. He is in every way worthy of the appointment and deserves to succeed. His true worth is well known to the people of this place. His appointment would be a deserved recognition to this country. The board of directors would not go amiss by appointing him to the place to which he aspires.

Our people should take a decided interest in the building up of a city library. The meeting at Saltmarsh's office to-night to elect officers should be well attended. The work that is being accomplished through the use of the library should be well understood and plans for increasing and extending its influence should be discussed. Every city should have a well regulated library. The value of a collection of good books, which are read both by parents and children, can not be measured. Good literature develops character along right lines, elevates citizenship and makes our institutions more stable.

YOUNG GIRLS.

Their Conduct and Health Often Mystify Their Mothers.

Young girls often feel and consequently act, very strangely. They shed tears without apparent cause, are restless, nervous, and at times almost hysterical.

They seem self-absorbed, and heedless of things going on around them. Sometimes they complain of pain in lower parts of body, flushes of heat in head, cold feet, etc.

Young girls are not free from incipient womb troubles. Mothers should see to it that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is promptly taken; all druggists have it. The girl will speedily be "herself again," and a probable danger be averted. Any information on this subject, or regarding all female ailments, will be cheerfully given free by Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Write her.

THE NEWSPAPER.

There was a banquet given Wednesday night to Col. Alexander McClure, editor of the Philadelphia Times, in honor of the completion of a career of fifty years in journalism. Colonel McClure made a speech on that occasion which should have great interest not only to his fellow journalists, but also to the public at large. It is true, as he said, that the modern newspaper is a great power. Much has been said along this line, but not enough attention has been given to the consequences which flow from the admittedly great influence of the press, and to a consideration of these consequences the Philadelphia editor addressed himself.

We do not always realize what an important factor the newspaper is in our civilization. Indeed, many of the men who are most influenced by it are unconscious of the fact. This is a nation of newspaper readers. The daily paper is read, to quote from Colonel McClure's excellent address, "not only by the men and women of mature years, but it begins its offices as teacher in the home circle as soon as the child becomes a pupil in the school, and it is constantly, though imperceptibly, molding the minds of the millions of our youths of all classes and all conditions, and it has no vacations in its great work."

Plainly, those who wield such an influence ought to feel the responsibility which rests upon them. Colonel McClure is right when he says that he does not speak of the newspaper as a power "to claim for it honors which rest may be questioned, but to present the oppressive responsibilities which upon those who are to day educating a nation of 70,000,000 of people under a government where every citizen is a sovereign, and where the people hold in their own hands the destiny of the greatest republic of the world." We believe that, generally speaking the editors of our great newspapers appreciate to the full the burden of the responsibility resting upon them. These are, of course, exceptions, but, in spite of the sneers at American newspapers, we think that, as a rule, they are doing their great work honestly and conscientiously. The service which they rendered to the cause of honest government and sound finance in the campaign just closed is proof of their wise use of the power which they possess. But it is well to have this responsibility enforced and emphasized by such a man as Colonel McClure.

The veteran editor's address ought to be an inspiration and a warning to every conscientious news newspaper worker, however humble his station. The little newspaper is in its sphere, quite as important as the metropolitan journal.—Indianapolis News.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children

The little children of the world are the most precious of our possessions. They are the future of our race, and it is our duty to see that they are brought up in health and happiness. Castoria is the best medicine for infants and children. It is a gentle laxative, and it keeps the bowels regular. It is also a good remedy for colic, and it soothes the nerves. It is a safe and reliable medicine, and it is the only one that is suitable for infants and children.

MURDER UNEARTHED

William Fetter's Body Found Buried With Five Bulletholes In It.

SHOT OFF BOTH HIS HANDS.

John Begley a Victim of Football—McPherson's Confession Verified—Insane From a Shock—Swallowed Morphine. Fatal Hacking Machine—Other Interesting Tri-State News—Briefly.

PLYMOUTH, Ind., Dec. 14.—About two weeks ago parties living near Election schoolhouse, in this county, heard shots from a gun and the next morning a pool of blood and a man's cap were found in the road. Saturday a number of men found a newly-made grave on the shore of Eagle lake. They proceeded to open it and first found the carcass of a mule, and underneath the animal the body of a man, which was identified as that of Edwin Fetter of this city, who has been missing for two or three weeks. Fetter made his home with William Sutherland, and he and Sutherland had been in Starke county buying and trading for old horses and mules, some of which they killed for the hides. Sutherland has been arrested by the deputy sheriff of Starke county, assisted by Sheriff Marshall of this city. Sutherland had recently traded for the interest of Fetter in some land northwest of Plymouth. Five bulletholes were found in the head and body of Fetter, and Sutherland was seen with a bloody gun and bloody clothes the next day after the shots were heard at night. Sutherland denies all knowledge of the affair.

RESUMPTION OF WORK.

Windowglass Factories of Anderson Begun Business.

ANDERSON, Ind., Dec. 14.—The Victor windowglass factory of this city resumed Saturday after the longest shutdown in its history. Work was given to more than 100 skilled men. The Anderson Windowglass company's plant in North Anderson, with 40 pots, and the Union windowglass factory started today. Scores of skilled men returned to Anderson to take places in the factory. With the resumption of work in the Union steel plant in Alexandria today every factory in that city is in full operation for the first time in its history. Better times are in prospect.

HEAVY DAMAGES.

Verdict Against the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern.

SEYMOUR, Ind., Dec. 14.—The jury in the case of Frank Gates against the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern railway, after being out five hours, brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $10,000. Mr. Gates was a through-conductor on the road, and about a year ago lost an arm while attempting to make a coupling. The case was hotly contested. It is said that the company will take an appeal.

McPherson's Confession Verified.

DECATUR, Ill., Dec. 14.—Orman McPherson, the stranger who surprised Decatur officers by confessing that he was a murderer, told the truth. He shot and killed the city marshal at Morning Star, Ia., on Sept. 20, 1895, and he has since been a fugitive from justice. An officer came for him Saturday. McPherson was at a livery stable in Morning Star, when his son, aged 17 years, engaged in a fight with the marshal. The boy was getting the best of the officer, when the latter used his billy. Then McPherson shot the officer and fled.

For False Pretenses.

RICHMOND, Ind., Dec. 14.—Detective Hage returned from Marion Saturday evening with C. O. Lehman, indicted by the Wayne county grand jury for obtaining money under false pretense. The amount is alleged to have been between $500 and $600, and he is alleged to have got it from the Second National bank of this city. Lehman was formerly a member of the firm of McCabe, Lehman & Dye, insurance agents here.

Swallowed Morphine.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., Dec. 14.—William May, a man of about 35 years of age, was found in a stairway on West Court street in an insensible condition. It was supposed he was sleeping off a drunk, but on investigation it was found he had taken morphine with the evident intention of ending his life. He was taken to the Passavant hospital and died a few hours later.

Insane From a Shock.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 14.—Frank B. Creighton, a clerk, was picked up on the street Saturday unconscious, and exhibiting symptoms of convulsions. He was taken to St. Francis' hospital, where, upon being revived, he gave every evidence of insanity. A short time ago he accidentally grasped a live electric wire and the shock he received seems to have dethroned his reason.

Foot Ball Victim.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Dec. 14.—John Begley, the son of a prominent physician of this county, died Saturday, the result of an injury received in a football game on Thanksgiving day. He was a student at De Pauw University at Greencastle. The fact that he was injured was not known till a couple of days before his death, when he informed his parents.

Suicided Over His Sweetheart's Grave.

TOLEDO, O., Dec. 14.—Edmund E. Wright, the son of Thomas H. Wright, a prominent insurance man of this city, committed suicide yesterday by shooting himself in the heart over the grave of a Mrs. Osborne, supposed to be a sweetheart of his.

Candle Factory Burned.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 14.—The 3-story brick candle factory of the Standard Oil company on James street was destroyed by fire yesterday. The loss on building and stock is about $50,000 and the insurance is only $38,000.

J. A. WEATHERS, Twice-a-Week Courier-Journal.

Beginning the first of the new year, the Weekly Courier-Journal, of Louisville, Ky., will be changed to the Twice-a-Week Courier-Journal. It will be published Wednesday and Saturday mornings. The paper will be six pages, or twelve pages a week, instead of ten pages weekly, as at present, an increase of 832 columns of matter during the year. The Wednesday issue will be devoted exclusively to news and politics, while the Saturday issue will be strictly a family paper—filled with stories, miscellany, pictures, poetry, sketches, etc. The politics of the paper will not be changed, and the battle for pure democracy and true democracy principles will be continued successfully in the future as in the past. In spite of the expense involved in the improvements noted the price of the Twice-a-Week Courier-Journal will remain the same, one dollar a year, with liberal inducements to agents or old subscribers who send in new ones. A feature during the coming year will be the editorials of Mr. Henry Watterson on political and other topics of the day.

A Lynching Probable. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Dec. 14.—Andrew Hart, aged 25, son of a pioneer farmer of this county, was shot dead yesterday by an unknown man, who entered the house, presumably for the purpose of robbery. A desperate fight ensued. The murderer escaped, but hundreds of armed citizens with bloodhounds are in pursuit and a lynching is probable if the murderer is captured.

Kidnaped His Own Child. COLUMBUS, Ind., Dec. 14.—James White, a farmer living near here, yesterday kidnaped his own child from his wife. The two were divorced on May 30, last and the child was born Oct. 16. White took the child from its mother and fled in a buggy.

VERDICT RENDERED AGAINST THE B.
& O. S. W. RAILROAD.

Frank H. Gates Wins His Suit For Damages
Caused by the Loss of an Arm While in the Employ of the Company.

The jury in the case of Frank Gates
against the B. & O. S. W. railroad company, for damages, rendered a verdict
in favor of the plaintiff, Saturday evening, fixing the damages at $10,000. The jury was out about five hours.

The case had been on trial four days
at Brownstown before Judge New, of Vernon, who had been appointed as special judge to try the case, and was hotly contested on both sides. Mr.
Gates was represented by A. N. Mun-
den, of this city, and Burrell & Bran-man, of Brownstown. Judge Hugh D.
McMullen, of Aurora, and O. H. Montgomery, of Seymour, appeared for the company. It is said that this is the largest judgment ever rendered in Indiana for the loss of an arm.

Frank H. Gates, the plaintiff in the case, who is so well and favorably known by the people of Seymour, met with the accident that resulted in the loss of his right arm, November 11, 1895. He had been railroad for more than seven years he had been a freight conductor, running between Seymour and Cincinnati. On the night he was hurt
he was coming west with his train from Cincinnati. At Milan they were doing some switching and while attempting to "pull a pin" himself his arm was caught between an extended truss rod
and a bumper and crushed. The arm was so badly mashed at the elbow that amputation was necessary. He was brought here where the work of amputation was skillfully done by Dr. Casey and Dr. Graessle. The arm healed rapidly, but of course, left him unable to follow railroad as he had done for fifteen years. He filed suit against the company last May, but it did not come
to trial until last week.

Argument for a new trial will be
heard next term of court.

William Webber, of Washington

physician sewed his ear on again and whether it will grow on again is not known.

A slick robbery was penetrated here after 10 o'clock Saturday night. The cigar store of Charles Brunow was entered by way of a back window and
eight dollars was lifted from the money drawer and some three dollars worth of cigars and tobacco were stolen. No
clue, of course.

Two Lives Saved

Nrs Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at W. F. Pe-always enjoyed good health until 1892, at which time my duties as a clergyman were of a peculiarly trying nature, subjecting me to several severe nervous shocks which together with overwork and anxiety, im-

CHINESE SPLENDOR.

THE DIPLOMATIC CORPS BEFORE THE REIGNING POTENTATE.

A Formal Reception by the Emperor. Stiff Necked Ceremony in the Midst of Rich Trappings—Magnificent Temples and Palaces in the Forbidden City.

After the present emperor ascended the throne of China his government yielded the point and agreed to receive the diplomatic corps in the same manner that they are received by the sovereigns of Europe. The first ceremony of the kind, which took place on March 5, 1891, was an event in Chinese history. The members of the several legations arrived at Fu Hua, or East Flower gate of the forbidden city, at 10 o'clock on that morning in sedan chairs, each escorted by two mounted officers of the Imperial guards. They were there met by the members of the Tsung Li Yamen, who conducted them to the Shih Yung Kung, the temple of the great river god, when they were offered tea and sweetmeats. An hour later they were escorted to the Tsu Kuang Ko, or reception hall, a handsome building profusely decorated with gilded coverings and ornamented with gay colors. The hall is approached by eight marble steps, which lead to a broad marble terrace. Around this terrace is a balustrade supported by pillars of marble, pure white and beautifully engraved.

The emperor arrived about the same time in his chair, which was covered outside and in with yellow silk, the official button on top being gold instead of silver and the ends of the bearing poles being elaborately carved and capped with gilded dragons. The dean of the diplomatic corps, escorted by members of the foreign office, was conducted into the hall, the sides of the approach to the steps, the steps themselves and the terrace being crowded with eunuchs employed in the palace and civil and military officers whose rank did not entitle them to enter the presence of the emperor. Each member of the diplomatic corps was given a separate audience by the emperor, who was seated upon a marble throne. As they crossed the threshold they bowed, advanced three or four paces and bowed again, then advanced to a point between the two dragon pillars, where a third stop and bow were made. There a foreign carpet covered the floor of the platform, which was about three feet high.

The ambassadors and ministers stopped about 12 feet from the emperor, where they made their speeches, which were translated by an interpreter into Chinese. They then advanced and handed letters of credence to Prince Ching, who had been standing on the left of the emperor. Taking the papers, he ascended the steps, approached the table in front of the emperor and laid them upon it, not kneeling until he had deposited them. The emperor replied to the speeches in the Mantchoo dialect after the diplomatists had returned to their places between the dragon pillars, his remarks being translated into Chinese by Prince Ching, sentence by sentence. The exit from the hall was made by walking backward, with bows at three paces.

The sides of the audience hall were covered with inscriptions and rare paintings of enormous size. The ceiling was composed of wooden squares 1 1/4 feet in size, divided by heavy rafters, all gorgeously painted with the dragon figures. The supporting columns were of red lacquer, covered with figures of gold dragons.

On the right of the emperor stood Prince Po, on his left Prince Ko, and near him Prince Ching. The room was lined on either side by two rows of high officers of the Imperial guards and chamberlains, many being princes and dukes of the imperial family. No arms were visible except the swords worn by the emperor and the princes. The imperial escort, bearing long red lacquered spears, with silver points and a long tiger tail, could be seen just outside the doors. They presented a picturesque appearance. On either side of the emperor was a straight stem six feet high, supporting at the top what appeared to be painted imitations of peacock tails spread out, the feathers indicating rank in China.

Lengthy inscriptions in Mantchoo were engraved upon a marble plinth back of the throne. Six immense incense bowls of old cloisonne, each guarded by an immense cloisonne dragon of great value, were placed around the platform, while from the ceiling were suspended eight cloisonne lamps made during the Toa-Kuang dynasty. On the table in front of the emperor, which was covered with yellow satin, embroidered with figures of dragons, was placed the pipe of his majesty, a piece of carved jade and gold, the handle formed by the body and tail of a dragon, its mouth as the tobacco bowl.

Within the pink walls that surrounded the forbidden city are several temples and 40 or more palaces and other buildings which are occupied as residences by the emperor's immediate attendants and officers of the guard. They are all of one story and of uniform architecture differing only in dimensions. Their exteriors are painted that peculiar white which Europeans have never been able to imitate and roofed with tiles of imperial yellow. The Fu Hua, or East Flower gate, is reached from the Tartar city by passing over a marble bridge, handsomely decorated and bearing several tablets with inscriptions that are taken long life, prosperity, happiness and other blessings. Immediately before the gates are the western gardens, handsomely laid out in the highest taste and skill in landscape architecture, and surrounding a lake that covers several acres. The nearest temple is dedicated to the great river god, and there the emperor offers sacrifices to appease that disorderly joss, who is responsible for the floods which so frequently devastate the lowlands of northern China.—Chicago Record.

VENETIAN GLASS.

AN ANCIENT INDUSTRY REVIVED IN THE ISLAND OF MURANO.

There Works of Art, Not Monstrosities, Are Produced—How the Descendants of the Old Venetian Glassworkers Make Beautiful Articles of Use and Ornament.

Among the lagoons, nearly due north of Venice, in the island of Murano there lives a race of men who seem to have a great future. They are the descendants of the old Venetian glassworkers, and of late years they have been reviving the ancient art, which made Murano famous in the past, of glassblowing.

The old Venetian glass was what is commonly called blown, but the name gives a very small idea of the manufacture. Glass has certain characteristics which give it its true beauty and value for art purposes, and though you may neglect these and force it to make forms utterly foreign to its nature you are producing not works of art, but monstrosities. Whatever glass may be, it is in its natural state not crystalline, so that nature is outraged when we grind it into sharp angular forms that belong rather to other materials. The old Venetian glass was light, bright, vitreous in appearance and stained with the richest possible colors, and all these qualities are retained in the newly revived manufacture at Murano.

There is one more strong point in favor of glass blown and worked over than molded—namely, that every individual piece is an original art, and as it is almost impossible that any two should be exactly alike, unless their form is very simple indeed, the buyer chooses according to his fancy and is sure that no one else possesses a piece exactly the same size and shape. In the manufacture of the ordinary cut glass minimum (red lead) is frequently added to increase its brightness, but this destroys at once the characteristic lightness, and, causing it to cool more rapidly, quite prevents the possibility of working it in the proper ductile and malleable condition.

The Murano material is worked as the ancient Venetian glass made on the same island used to be, and all the old methods have been discovered, or at least the same effects have been produced. The flamma, perhaps more strange than beautiful, the millefiori, the smelze, including perfect imitations of agates, chalcedons, lapis lazuli, etc., for mosaic, the aqua marina, rich ruby colors, the brilliant aventurin, all are here, and many other kinds of work, some of which are imitations of the old glass and some new inventions.

The tools used are a hollow reed of iron, a few instruments like shears, of different sizes, and a stamp with a strawberry shaped die. The end of the rod is dipped into molten glass, of say, ruby color, and a portion accumulated on its end. A too much or too little is taken, the wineglass will not be of the right size, and if the metal, as it is called, is not of the right temperature, the color will be too dark or too light. The lump is rolled on a table into symmetry and heated again. A few turns of the rod and a breath or two through it, and a hollow ball appears at the end. One extra puff of the breath and the bowl would be too large and too thin. A boy brings up a small portion of white glass, which he has picked out of another reservoir and blown hollow. This must be so hot as almost to drop off the rod, and must be ready at the exact moment. He touches the bowl with it, and the two adhere like sealing wax. A pull asunder and one dextrous twist form the delicate stem of the wineglass upon which three little lumps of glass are then stuck and stamped as strawberries and the whole is again introduced into the furnace, where it would instantly droop out of shape but for the deft manipulation which it undergoes.

By the time it is heated the boy is ready with another globe of glass, perhaps of a different color, which he causes to adhere to the bottom of the stem. The man spins it around between his shears, nipping part of it almost off, and thus gaining the right quantity of metal for the foot, no less and no more. One tap on an iron ledge breaks the superfluous piece, and leaves a small hole at the point of the fracture. Once more the action of the fire is called in to soften the brittle material, and when the pear shaped ends come out the points of the closed shears are introduced to widen the opening into a cuplike form.

A small lump of aventurin is by this time on the end of the boy's rod, melted and only saved from dropping by his dexterity. One touch and it adheres to the end of the cup just formed. He puts it out and winds it around, adhering as it goes to the edge. Again the fire does its duty, and then the artist finishes the form of the foot, detaching immediately the bulb at the top from his hollow rod. Another rod, with a molten piece of glass, is prepared for him by the boy's ready co-operation, and is pressed against the center of the foot, to which it adheres. Into the fire goes the whole piece, and when withdrawn the bowl of the glass is partly drawn by the shears, aventurin wound around the edge as before with the foot. A last heat, and with artistic care the delicate, crocuslike bowl, which is some day to contain the sparkling wine, is completed.—London Globe.

THEY'RE ALL LIKE THAT.

Oh, have you ever known a girl, when asked about her age, Who'd sweetly smile and answer you and not get in a rage? The weather, styles and last new plays are topics safe for you. But if you venture on her age she'll snap those eyes of blue (Or if they're black 'twill be worse yet) and curl her lips in scorn. Then you will feel of all men you are the most forlorn. Now, ten to one, if you could see within that maiden's breast, She'll be consigning you somewhere, but not among the blest. The girls are all alike in that the whole wide world around— You must not ask how old they are—at least so I have found. I tried it once, and to my cost. Now I'm a wiser man, And to you fellows I must say this—avoid it if you can. —Richard Brent in Atlanta Constitution.

The Interesting Performance of an Equine Gymnast.

It is the easiest thing in the world for a horse to eat from the ground standing—that is the way it feeds in nature—but a horse that was standing in Nassau street the other day, attached to a delivery wagon, ate from the ground in a way that interested everybody who saw him.

Straightening out his fore legs in front of him, at an angle of about 45 degrees, something as a dog straightens out his fore legs in stretching, he lowered his body at the shoulders to about half its usual elevation above the ground. Then he inclined his head downward between his legs until his lips touched the pavement. He didn't need to bend his neck more than half as much as would have been necessary if he had remained standing with his fore legs upright. It was like a feat in gymnastics.

A crescent shaped crowd gathered in front of the horse, one horn of the crescent being on one sidewalk and the other on the other. Somebody put a pear down on the pavement between the horse's feet. Out went his feet and down he lowered his body and then deliberately he inclined his head and picked up the pear; and then he straightened up and ate it, all to the great enjoyment of the crowd. One man said Barrum ought to have him, and yet when he straightened up and was standing at rest he was just a good looking horse whom nobody would ever have taken for the prize horse gymnast.

A boy laid down the core of an apple and the horse picked that up as before while the crowd looked on, and presently the driver came out of a building and jumped on the seat of the wagon. He saw the crowd, but he didn't let on that he saw it or anything remarkable at all; he simply gathered up the lines and drove off, and then the crowd melted away.—New York Sun.

John R. McLean's Great Newspaper.

Without a single exception, there is beyond doubt no greater or more popular newspaper in the United States than the Cincinnati Enquirer; or a more successful publisher than its proprietor, Mr. John R. McLean.

The old-time prices for the Daily Enquirer have been maintained, and its circulation largely increased each year; hard times and cheaper journals failing to arrest its onward march and high appreciation of the public for its true worth and merit.

The Weekly Enquirer at beginning of the campaign year was offered at 50 cents a year, and its circulation increased by the addition of over 200,000 new subscribers; the most substantial and coveted testimonial a publisher could desire.

When asked for the secret of such success, Mr. McLean frankly answers: The Enquirer has no opinions to force upon its patrons, it simply prints the facts and tells the truth that the reader may form his own opinions. By maintaining the price of the paper, more news and greater variety can be furnished, and every class of business interests catered to, which a cheaper journal cannot afford.

The very liberal support given the Enquirer by the public at large, makes it incumbent upon the management to serve it faithfully with zeal and enterprise in minor matters as well as those of greater magnitude.

London Cabbies' Trick.

"Like a ride, sir? Jump up. Nothing to pay."

The writer was taking a stroll along the Thames embankment one fine evening after supper when the driver of a smart looking four wheeler pulled across the road and hailed him thus curiously.

I jumped on the box beside him, and, noticing my look of inquiry, he explained: "You see, sir, we cabbies are not allowed to drive empty through the Strand during this half hour just as the theater goers are coming out. Of course there is a dead certainty of getting a fare now if we can only manage to get into the street. So to prevent the place getting filled with cabs there is a policeman at every side turning with strict orders to turn us back as soon as there are enough on the bank."

"But no bobby in the world can stop a man driving a fare into the Strand, and so we ask a likely looking customer to oblige us and jump in while we drive past the constable. Once in the street, we are pretty sure of picking up a fare before we are noticed and ordered out again."

"Thank you, sir, very much," he added as I alighted a few doors from the Villiers street end of the crowded thoroughfare, "and good night! Cab, sir? Yes, sir," and he quickly drove off with his new fare.—Pearson's Weekly.

Nasty American.

Among my fellow passengers recently on one of these good but very slow ships, the Irrawadie, was a little curly haired English boy who had evidently been brought up in the strictest sect of the aristocracy—an embryonic Englishman of the Englishmen.

"Do you speak French, little boy?" said a good lady to him, who was trying to scrape acquaintance with the youthful Briton.

"Oh, naw," said the little chap.

"Do you speak American?" then asked the lady.

"Oh, naw," he replied, with a still stronger emphasis.

"But wouldn't you like to learn American?" persisted the lady.

"Oh, naw, thanks," answered this sturdy little patriot. "It is very, very nasty to speak American."—North American Review.

Tennyson's Prediction.

It has been learned that Tennyson predicted the day of his death. Just a year before his death friends of the poet were visiting Aldworth House. The late Lord Selborne turned to Tennyson and remarked, "You ought to be happy here." "Ah," sighed the poet, "I have only a year to live!" His hearers laughed at the remark, but it was a prophetic assertion that was verified to the minute.

Affability, mildness, tenderness and a word which I would fain bring back to its original significance of virtue—I mean good nature—are of daily use. They are the bread of mankind and the staff of life.—Dryden.

PEACE HATH HER VICTORIES.

The treaty of arbitration between the United States and Great Britain, it is announced, will probably be completed and signed within the next three weeks. The completion of this treaty will mark an important epoch in the relations between the two English-speaking nations, and in the judgment of those who have been most identified with its consummation it will be the most important document of a peaceful character in the history of their mutual dealings. The treaty is to cover a period of five years; the board is to be made up of three members of the United States judiciary and three members of England's judiciary; and all differences now pending or that may arise between the two countries will be submitted to this board except the Venezuelan and Bering Sea controversies which are now in process of settlement by other plans. This treaty finds the mode of settling all disputes now between the countries.

The main purpose is to guard against future disputes threatening a rupture, and in this the negotiators believe that the terms of the instrument will be such as to avoid all possibility of international conflict for the future and this is regarded as the main achievement. It is one said to be peculiarly advantageous to the commercial interests of both countries, assuring them against rumors of war or the serious prospect of war. As one of those concerned in the negotiations sums up the result.

When a serious difference arises between the two countries, instead of a public feeling that a war may result and a consequent unsettling of commercial interests, as occurred during the Venezuelan crisis, the public will know beyond all possibility of rumor or report that the difference is one which will be settled by arbitration instead of a possible resort to arms. This public sentiment against alarm is felt to be no less beneficial, as one of the features secured by the treaty than the plan of arbitration itself.

If Maceo himself will make affidavit that he is dead we will believe the report but not otherwise.—Commercial Tribune.

The American Federation of Labor meets in Cincinnati to-day. It is expected that this will be one of the most important meetings this organization has ever held.

When Santa Claus makes an announcement through the advertising columns of the REPUBLICAN it counts for something. You can find almost anything you want for Christmas in the stores which use our advertising columns.

If the stories are true that Maceo was assassinated by the Spaniards it only reveals the desperation to which they are driven to crush the rebellion. While it is a serious blow, we do not believe it will put down the war. The Cubans will renew their vigilance and fight with redoubled energy for their freedom.

Elder Tros. Jones, of this city, is an applicant for the chaplaincy of the Prison South. He is in every way worthy of the appointment and deserves to succeed. His true worth is well known to the people of this place. His appointment would be a deserved recognition to this county. The board of directors would not go amiss by appointing him to the place to which he aspires.

Our people should take a decided interest in the building up of a city library. The meeting at Saltmarsh's office to night to elect officers should be well attended. The work that is being accomplished through the use of the library should be well understood and plans for increasing and extending its influence should be discussed. Every city should have a well regulated library. The value of a collection of good books, which are read both by parents and children, cannot be measured. Good literature develops character along right lines, elevates citizenship and makes our institutions more stable.

YOUNG GIRLS.

Their Conduct and Health Often Mystifies Their Mothers.

Young girls often feel and consequently act, very strangely. They shed tears without apparent cause, are restless, nervous, and at times almost hysterical. They seem self-absorbed, and heedless of things going on around them. Sometimes they complain of pain in lower parts of body, flushes of heat in head, cold feet, etc.

Young girls are not free from incipient womb troubles.

Mothers should see to it that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is promptly taken; all druggists have it. The girl will speedily be "herself again," and a probable danger be averted. Any information on this subject, or regarding all female ailments, will be cheerfully given free by Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Write her.

THE NEWSPAPER.

There was a banquet given Wednesday night to Col. Alexander McClure, editor of the Philadelphia Times, in honor of the completion of a career of fifty years in journalism. Colonel McClure made a speech on that occasion which should have great interest not only to his fellow journalists, but also to the public at large. It is true, as he said, that the modern newspaper is a great power. Much has been said along this line, but not enough attention has been given to the consequences which flow from the admittedly great influence of the press, and to a consideration of these consequences the Philadelphia editor addressed himself.

We do not always realize what an important factor the newspaper is in our civilization. Indeed, many of the men who are most influenced by it are unconscious of the fact. This is a nation of newspaper readers. The daily paper is read, to quote from Colonel McClure's excellent address, "not only by the men and women of mature years, but it begins its office as teacher in the home circle as soon as the child becomes a pupil in the school, and it is constantly, though imperceptibly, molding the minds of the millions of our youths of all classes and all conditions, and it has no vacations in its great work."

Plainly, those who wield such an influence ought to feel the responsibility which rests upon them. Colonel McClure is right when he says that he does not speak of the newspaper as a power "to claim for it honors which may be questioned, but to present the oppressive responsibilities which upon those who are to day educating a nation of 70,000,000 of people under a government where every citizen is a sovereign, and where the people hold in their own hands the destiny of the greatest republic of the world." We believe that, generally speaking the editors of our great newspapers appreciate to the full the burden of the responsibility resting upon them. These are, of course, exceptions, but in spite of the sneers at American newspapers, we think that, as a rule, they are doing their great work honestly and conscientiously. The service which they rendered to the cause of honest government and sound finance in the campaign just closed is proof of their wise use of the power which they possess. But it is well to have this responsibility enforced and emphasized by such a man as Colonel McClure.

The veteran editor's address ought to be an inspiration and a warning to every conscientious news newspaper worker, however humble his station. The little newspaper is in its sphere, quite as important as the metropolitan journal.—Indianapolis News.

William Fetter's Body Found Buried With Five Bulletholes In It.

SHOT OFF BOTH HIS HANDS.

John Begley a Victim of Football—McPherson's Confession Verified—Insane From a Shock—Swallowed Morphine—Fatal Hacking Machine—Other Interesting Tri-State News—Briefly.

PLYMOUTH, Ind., Dec. 14.—About two weeks ago parties living near Election schoolhouse, in this county, heard shots from a gun and the next morning a pool of blood and a man's cap were found in the road. Saturday a number of men found a newly-made grave on the shore of Eagle lake. They proceeded to open it and first found the carcass of a mule, and underneath the animal the body of a man, which was identified as that of Edwin Fetter of this city, who has been missing for two or three weeks. Fetter made his home with William Sutherly, and he and Sutherly had been in Starke county buying and trading for old horses and mules, some of which they killed for the hides. Sutherly has been arrested by the deputy sheriff of Starke county, assisted by Sheriff Marshall of this city. Sutherly had recently traded for the interest of Fetter in some land northwest of Plymouth. Five bulletholes were found in the head and body of Fetter, and Sutherly was seen with a bloody gun and bloody clothes the next day after the shots were heard at night. Sutherly denies all knowledge of the affair.

RESUMPTION OF WORK.

Windowglass Factories of Anderson Begin Business.

ANDERSON, Ind., Dec. 14.—The Victor windowglass factory of this city resumed Saturday after the longest shutdown in its history. Work was given to more than 100 skilled men. The Anderson Windowglass company's plant in North Anderson, with 40 pots, and the Union windowglass factory started today. Scores of skilled men returned to Anderson to take places in the factories. With the resumption of work in the Union steel plant in Alexandria today every factory in that city is in full operation for the first time in its history. Better times are in prospect.

HEAVY DAMAGES.

Verdict Against the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern.

SEYMOUR, Ind., Dec. 14.—The jury in the case of Frank Gates against the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern railway, after being out five hours, brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $10,000. Mr. Gates was a through-conductor on the road, and about a year ago lost an arm while attempting to make a coupling. The case was hotly contested. It is said that the company will take an appeal.

McPherson's Confession Verified. DECATUR, Ill., Dec. 14.—Orman McPherson, the stranger who surprised Decatur officers by confessing that he was a murderer, told the truth. He shot and killed the city marshal at Morning Sun, Ia., on Sept. 20, 1895, and he has since been a fugitive from justice. An officer came for him Saturday. McPherson was at a livery stable in Morning Sun, when his son, aged 17 years, engaged in a fight with the marshal. The boy was getting the best of the officer, when the latter used his billy. Then McPherson shot the officer and fled.

For False Pretenses.

RICHMOND, Ind., Dec. 14.—Detective Hage returned from Marion Saturday evening with C. O. Lehman, indicted by the Wayne county grand jury for obtaining money under false pretense. The amount is alleged to have been between $500 and $800, and he is alleged to have got it from the Second National bank of this city. Lehman was formerly a member of the firm of McCabe, Lehman & Dye, insurance agents here.

Swallowed Morphine.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., Dec. 14.—William May, a man of about 35 years of age, was found in a stairway on West Court street in an insensible condition. It was supposed he was sleeping off a drunk, but on investigation it was found he had taken morphine with the evident intention of ending his life. He was taken to the Passavant hospital and died a few hours later.

Insane From a Shock.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 14.—Frank B. Creighton, a clerk, was picked up on the street Saturday unconscious, and exhibiting symptoms of convulsions. He was taken to St. Francis' hospital, where, upon being revived, he gave every evidence of insanity. A short time ago he accidentally grasped a live electric wire and the shock he received seems to have dethroned his reason.

Foot Ball Victim.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Dec. 14.—John Begley, the son of a prominent physician of this county, died Saturday, the result of an injury received in a football game on Thanksgiving day. He was a student at De Pauw University at Greencastle. The fact that he was injured was not known till a couple of days before his death, when he informed his parents.

Suicide Over His Sweetheart's Grave.

TOLEDO, O., Dec. 14.—Edmund E. Wright, the son of Thomas H. Wright, a prominent insurance man of this city, committed suicide yesterday by shooting himself in the heart over the grave of a Mrs. Osborne, supposed to be a sweetheart of his.

Candle Factory Burned.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 14.—The 3-story brick candle factory of the Standard Oil company on James street was destroyed by fire yesterday. The loss on building and stock is about $50,000 and the insurance is only $3,000.

Twice-a-Week Courier-Journal.

Beginning the first of the new year, the Weekly Courier-Journal, of Louisville, Ky., will be changed to the Twice-a-Week Courier-Journal. It will be published Wednesday and Saturday mornings. The paper will be six pages, or twelve pages a week, instead of ten pages weekly, as at present, an increase of 332 columns of matter during the year. The Wednesday issue will be devoted exclusively to news and politics, while the Saturday issue will be strictly a family paper—filled with stories, miscellany, pictures, poetry, sketches, etc. The politics of the paper will not be changed, and the battle for pure democracy and true democracy principles will be continued successfully in the future as in the past. In spite of the expense involved in the improvements noted the price of the Twice-a-Week Courier-Journal will remain the same, one dollar a year, with liberal inducements to agents or old subscribers who send in new ones. A feature during the coming year will be the editorials of Mr. Henry Watterson on political and other topics of the day.

A Lynching Probable.
MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Dec. 14.—Andrew Hart, aged 25, son of a pioneer farmer of this county, was shot dead yesterday by an unknown man, who entered the house, presumably for the purpose of robbery. A desperate fight ensued. The murderer escaped, but hundreds of armed citizens with bloodhounds are in pursuit and a lynching is probable if the murderer is captured.

Kidnaped His Own Child.
COLUMBUS, Ind., Dec. 14.—James White, a farmer living near here, yesterday kidnaped his own child from his wife. The two were divorced on May 30, last and the child was born Oct. 16. White took the child from its mother and fled in a buggy.

VERDICT RENDERED AGAINST THE B.
& O. S. W. RAILROAD.

Frank H. Gates Wins His Suit For Damages
Caused by the Loss of an Arm While
in the Employ of the Company.

The jury in the case of Frank Gates
against the B. & O. S. W. railroad company, for damages, rendered a verdict
in favor of the plaintiff, Saturday evening, fixing the damages at $10,000. The jury was out about five hours.

The case had been on trial four days
at Brownstown before Judge New, of Vernon, who had been appointed as
special judge to try the case, and was
hotly contested on both sides. Mr.
Gates was represented by A. N. Mun-
den, of this city, and Burrell & Branaman, of Brownstown. Judge Hugh D.
McMullen, of Aurora, and O. H. Montgomery, of Seymour, appeared for the company. It is said that this is the largest judgment ever rendered in Indiana for the loss of an arm.

Frank H. Gates, the plaintiff in the case, who is so well and favorably
known by the people of Seymour, met
with the accident that resulted in the loss of his right arm, November 11, 1895. He had been railroading for about fifteen years, and for more than seven years he had been a freight conductor, running between Seymour and Cincinnati. On the night he was hurt
he was coming west with his train from Cincinnati. At Milan they were doing
some switching and while attempting
to "pull a pin" himself his arm was
caught between an extended truss rod
and a bumper and crushed. The arm
was so badly mashed at the elbow that amputation was necessary. He was brought here where the work of amputation was skillfully done by Dr. Casey and Dr. Grassie. The arm healed rapidly, but of course, left him unable to follow railroading as he had done for fifteen years. He filed suit against the
company last May, but it did not come
to trial until last week.

Argument for a new trial will be
heard next term of court.

Rob't. A. Bothwell, of Seymour, is the new night clerk at the Gentry, vice Alva Carter resigned.—Bloomington

"No entertainer in America has ever demonstrated to Nashville audience such a combination of literary insight, eloquency, excellence, and dramatic ability in portraying character. On the American platform he has no superior."—Nashville Sun, October 28, 1896, said this of Charles Montville Flowers.

Serious Injury.

William Webber, of Washington
township, was hauling sawlogs Saturday when he accidentally fell off the wagon and in striking the ground had his ear cut off by falling on a block and three of his ribs were broken. The attending physician sewed his ear on again and
and whether it will grow on again is not known.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thank-
ful. It is such results, of which these
are samples, that prove the wonderful
efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at W. F. Peter's, successor to J. H. Andrews & Co.'s drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

A slick robbery was penetrated here
after 10 o'clock Saturday night. The cigar store of Charles Brunow was entered by way of a back window and
eight dollars was lifted from the money
drawer and some three dollars worth of cigars and tobacco were stolen. No
clue, of course.

The public schools in many parts of the state have been interrupted this year by the prevalence of diphtheria.

By the telephone system the public schools of the city are now brought into touch as though they were all in one building. This is not merely a convenience but an improvement in organization and hence of efficiency.

The schools will close for the holiday vacation Wednesday, Dec. 23, and reopen Monday, Jan. 4.

Don't be persuaded into buying liniments without reputation or merit—Chamberlain's Pain Balm costs no more and its merits have been proven by a test of many years. Such letters as the following, from L. G. Bagloy, Hueneme, Cal., are constantly being received: 'The best remedy for pain I have ever used is Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and I say so after having used it in my family for several years.' It cures rheumatism, lame back, sprains and swellings. For sale by C. W. Whitcomb, Druggist.
